VOLUME CIX.--NO. 111. ALEXANDRIA, VA., FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 22, 1908. PRICE 2 CENTS

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nervine. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeons' knife, would, it is believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

SNOW STORMS AND TORNADOES

Snow, which in many places reached a depth of three feet, fell all day Wednesday and last night at Sheridan, Wyoing. Fruit will be ruined and the loss of live stock great. It is the worst spring snowstorm for twenty-five years, and extends over parts of Montana.

Northwestern Nebraska experienced a heavy snowstorm Wednesday night. Damage to early crops will result.

Southern Iowa was hit yesterday by a terrific windstorm, which, at Albia, assumed the form of a tornado. The Grant School in Albia was wrecked and the roof crashed through to the rooms below just fifteen minutes before assembly time. Pupils and teachers escaped injury. One man was instantly killed by a heavy corn crib, which the wind picked up and dropped upon him.

Heavy losses of sheep and lambs are reported from Dawson county, Montana, by a blizzard that began Wednesday. The snow lies two feet deep on the level and five and six feet in the drifts.

Mrs. Fred Grothe was killed and several persons were more or less injured in a tornado which struck Lincoln county, Kansas, Wednesday night.

A northwest gale, bringing with it great damage, death for at least one and serious injury for several persons, fell upon Minneapolis and surrounding territory yesterday.

Wires went down in all parts of the city of Minneapolis before a 52-mile an hour wind, causing no less than eighteen alarms of fire in a few hours, and a steady and excessive rain made total precipitation of 3.9.

A long chapter of accidents, many of them painfully and at least one with probably fatal results, followed in the wake of the storm, which was one of the most severe of the year.

St. Paul suffered to the extent of seventhousand dollars from fires caused by crossed electric wires and lightning. Many chimneys were blown down, the city's drainage system was temporarily impaired, and basements in the business section were thoroughly flooded.

At Owattonna, near Minneapolis, during the terrific electric storm, lightning struck Kelly Hall, the boys' dormitory of Pillsbury Academy. Fortunately no one was injured and the damage was slight.

The village of New Ulm, Minn., was struck by one of the most severe storms in recent years Wednesday. From early morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon, a dust storm from the South, traveling at the rate of fifty miles an hour, passed over the section. Despite the violent air current, residents were sweltering, and shortly after 4 o'clock a terrible electric storm, accompanied by a high wind and hail, terrified the people for more than three hours. Considerable damage was done to the small grain by hail alone. Shortly after 6 o'clock the streets were raging torrents. The downpour resembled a cloudburst. The Mississippi river rose over six inches, and in some places the lowlands are inundated.

At Wahpeton, N. Dak., Campbell Bros.' main show tent blew down while the performance was in progress, and two persons were badly injured. At about 4 o'clock a cyclone lifted the tent, and there was a wild scramble for safety.

Mr. John Riha of Vining, Ia., says, "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold." Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

EVELYN THAW DISSATISFIED.

That Mrs. Evelyn Thaw is to withdraw her suit for the annulment of her marriage to Harry K. Thaw in order that she may later ask the court to appoint her a committee of her husband's person and estate was the statement made in New York yesterday by friends of the former artist model. Daniel O'Reilly, counsel for Mrs Thaw, would neither affirm nor deny the statement, a thought he intimated that such a course was probable.

"It is the custom of the courts to appoint the wife of an incompetent to look after his estate," Mr. O'Reilly said, "and in case Justice Morschauser should find Thaw insane, I presume Mrs. Thaw would be named if she applies for appointment."

It is said that the reason back of the withdrawal is the dissatisfaction of Mrs. Thaw with the present allowance which she receives. She is now depending on the whims of her husband, and is said not to have been able to reach an agreement with the Thaw family. Were she appointed to look after Thaw's estate, their positions would be reversed, and he would be in large measure dependent on her.

Dr Amos T. Baker, acting superintendent of Matteawan Insane Asylum, is quoted as saying that Harry K. Thaw's extreme nervousness and his poor showing on the witness stand in the habeas corpus proceedings at Poughkeepsie were due to the fact that he has consumed large quantities of Scotch whisky smuggled in to him while he was at the asylum and since he has been in the Dutchess county jail.

It was learned from another source that Thaw had had three large drinks of Scotch whisky just before he went on the stand, and that he was in almost a dazed condition when he sought to answer questions.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers are small, safe sure and gentle little pills. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

Chi-Namel

Or an old hard wood floor, furniture, etc., may be made to look like new, with a harder, more durable finish than it had originally.

Chi-Namel colors the wood, and varnishes it at the same time, and the surface is so hard that walking or washing will not remove the gloss.

This new self-grainer makes it easy for anyone to produce a beautiful grained effect, exactly like the most expensive hard wood floors.

Call at our store and allow us to demonstrate how easy it is to grain and varnish by this improved system. Free samples while they last

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 22, 1908

CONGRESSMAN CARTER GLASS, of Lynchburg, prospective candidate for governor, has addressed the editor of the Blackstone Courier, published in Nottoway county (Judge Mann's county), an open letter in response to an editorial criticism published recently in that paper. The Courier commented on a paragraph in the Washington correspondence of a Richmond paper concerning Mr. Glass's candidacy for governor. The Courier, it seems, assumed that the paragraph was inspired by Mr. Glass, and represents his intentions, and predicts what will happen to him and to insinuate the likelihood of an assault on his character as a private citizen should he presume to criticise the public record of any other candidate for governor. Mr. Glass has replied to this threat in a two column article over his own signature. Among other things he says:

I did not see or hear of the paragraph which furnished the text of your comment for more than a week after its appearance. I not only did not inspire the publication, but distinctly regretted it. Had I not ascertained, by inquiry that it was written by a friend, I should have suspected that it might have been written by an enemy, and had it not appeared in a newspaper with whose publishers I have for years maintained close and cordial personal relations, I might have conjected that there was something singular about the printing of it. * * * * The editor of the Courier thinks it a fair assertion to say that, because I am in Washington attending to my duties as a congressman, anything sent from that city by newspaper correspondents purporting to forecast my part in the next gubernatorial campaign in Virginia "undoubtedly" reflects my views. Arguing a priori, would it not be as reasonable for me to insist that, because the Blackstone Courier is a personal and political advocate of Judge Mann, published at his home, the latter inspired its covert threat to criticise my "record as a private citizen," should I discuss his record as a public man?

Mr. Glass very properly announces his determination to discuss the claims or personnel of any man who offers his services as a public servant, and invites such inspection of himself while in the political arena. He further says:

I do not belong to the school of candidates that seeks to differentiate public and private character or to discriminate personal and political integrity. A man with a bad private character should not be given public place, and I believe any man who is, politically, a knave is, at bottom, personally dishonest. So that, if the Blackstone Courier, either as a matter of public conscience or in the interest of its candidate for governor, desires to criticise my "record as a private citizen," it may do so with the explicit assurance from me that there will be no whining about "personal abuse" or "mud-slinging." In such criticism it is bound to do one of two things: It must tell the truth, or tell a falsehood. If it shall tell the truth, I will have no right to complain. If it shall tell a falsehood, it must accept the consequences. If it can impeach my record as a private citizen, it can destroy my title to public respect, and if it can do either of these things, it should not, as a fearless, decent journal, hesitate a moment to perform this public service.

INSIDE facts of the wrecking of the Allegheny National Bank, of Pittsburg, by William Montgomery, an agent of the late Senator Quay, were disclosed yesterday, showing that the embezzlement was the most complete cleaning out of an institution in the history of bank scandals in Pennsylvania. After every possible asset of the bank had been exhausted, including the building, its contents, stocks, collateral, etc., there will be still a deficit of more than $600,000. By assessing all stockholders 100 per cent, according to the individual liability act, this amount can be reduced about one-half, leaving $300,000 to be supplied by the bondsmen. This means an assessment of about 15 per cent. on the latter. It is admitted that a number of the bondsmen and stockholders will be driven to the wall and left penniless. Men who have been recognized as rich will be made poor. There is a strong suspicion that Montgomery is taking a diplomatic stand. If he should tell all the truth, it is believed, a number of influential men would be so involved that the scandal would extend throughout the state. By remaining loyal to his accomplices, Montgomery probably believes that the men whose reputations he is sparing will exert their influence in his behalf.

THE uncertainty of the law was again illustrated yesterday when in New York Miss Mae C. Wood, who was suing Senator Platt for divorce, was ordered to jail and her petition dismissed. The court did not believe Miss Wood's testimony and many do not believe that of Senator Platt; so there you are.

Benjamin Seward, a negro fisherman, was struck by lightning and instantly killed yesterday while fishing in a small boat in Chesapeake bay off Buckroe Beach, near Newport News. Two of his companions were badly stunned by the shock, but were able to get ashore, carrying the body of the dead man with them.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, D. C., May 22.

Senator Dick, of Ohio, chairman of the committee on mines and mining, will call a meeting of that committee today to act on the bill just passed by the House, creating a bureau of mines, in the Interior Department. This committee is said to be very friendly to the bill and it is expected that it will pass the Senate without trouble. The only opposition is from senators who believe that a separate department with a cabinet official at its head should be created, instead of a bureau. It is understood that John Mitchell, until recently president of the United Mine Workers, will be made head of the bureau, if he will accept.

While great pressure is being brought to bear upon republican leaders in the House for the introduction of a resolution seeking the expulsion of Representative George L. Lilley, of Connecticut, whose charges of submarine graft have fallen flat, it is hardly probable that any such action will be taken. Minority Leader John Sharp Williams who was yesterday reported to be ready to introduce such a resolution, said today that he did not contemplate such action, as this would mean turning the matter into a party affair. On the other hand republican leaders are swayed by the fact that Lilley, a good republican, as a candidate for governor of his State, may, if expelled, cause the party some inconvenience in that State and possibly in the national campaign. Few members believe that Lilley will voluntarily resign even after becoming acquainted with the coming arraignment of the investigating committee.

In spite of the fact that many democrats are supposedly tired of the filibuster which minority leader John Sharp Williams has been conducting in the House for so many weeks, there has been, according to Mr. Williams himself, no tendency upon the part of his followers to desert the flag of revolt raised against the republican programme of legislation. Mr. Williams informed two of his colleagues this morning that he intends to keep the filibuster up until all business has been passed by aye and nays votes. Mr. Williams thinks that Congress can not get away until next Wednesday at the least.

The House committee on banking and currency took the last step today in the march toward the creating of a joint congressional committee to perfect a permanent system of banking for this country, when it reported favorably to the House the joint resolution providing for the appointment of such a committee. This resolution, passed by the Senate, provides that eighteen senators and members of the House make a thorough and exhaustive inquiry into the banking laws of the nation and report its finding at the next session.

Charles M. Wood, vice-consul general at Rome, died this morning. Mr. Wood, who was a native of Vermont, had been in ill-health for some time. The body will probably be shipped home for burial.

Senators Foraker and La Follette, both of whom have been ill for some time, the latter seriously, have recovered sufficiently to resume their places on the floor of the Senate. Both were warmly welcomed by their colleagues.

President Roosevelt has indicated that he will hold the $82,000,000 public building bill, so dear to the hearts of congressmen, as a club over the heads of the clique that is opposing legislation he seeks.

The government has today filed a petition against the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad Company and others, charging the existence of a combination in restraint of trade, and monopoly, within the meaning of section 1 and 2, of the Sherman anti-trust act.

Edward Kennedy, a painter, 40 years old, who lives at 619 Florida avenue, took a dose of carbolic acid this morning and died shortly after his removal to Freedman's Hospital. He had a quarrel with his wife.

Although a few democrats in the House are busy trying to induce enough republicans to join forces to prevent adjournment until an anti-injunction bill is passed, it is not likely that the movement can succeed.

The president today sent to the senate the following nominations of postmasters: James M. Williams, at Broadway, Va.; William D. Amis, at Virgilina, Va.

Admiral Evans called at the White House today for the first time since his return from the Pacific coast and received the congratulations of the president upon the successful completion of the voyage of the fleet.

News of the Day.

There are rumors of a reduction in the Baltimore and Ohio dividend from 6 to 5 per cent.

A score of buildings were unroofed, trees uprooted and other serious damage done by a tornado which swept Wilton, Wis., early today. Several persons were seriously hurt.

Alden Kobb, 26, of Salem Corners, near Scranton, Pa., was bitten on the cheek 21 years ago by a pet dog. Today he is raving from sufferings said to be due to hydrophobia, and will die.

The forty-eighth annual session of the general assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church met at Greensboro, N. C. yesterday. Rev. Dr. W. W. Moore, of Richmond, was elected moderator.

The jury in the bribery case against Abe Ruef, former boodling boss of San Francisco, yesterday afternoon reported a disagreement and was dismissed after being out forty-eight hours and taking thirteen ballots.

One man is known to have been killed, nine to a dozen others were injured and property to the extent of $400,000 was destroyed by a fire which broke out yesterday in the plant of the Wintermeyer Box Factory at Chicago.

Without water Mayfield, Ky., was yesterday at the complete mercy of a fire which caused a loss of $150,000. An incendiary started the blaze in the rear of the transfer barns of Cooley & Gordon. There was no means of fighting fire, as the water and light plant of the city were burned Sunday night.

The report of David McClure, who was appointed by Justice O'Gorman in the Supreme Court of New York as referee to take the testimony in the divorce suit brought by Mrs. Ellen French Vanderbilt against Alfred G. Vanderbilt, was submitted yesterday to Justice O'Gorman. Its contents were not made public, and probably never will be, but its conclusion is a recommendation by the referee that Mrs. Vanderbilt be granted a divorce on the strength of the evidence produced.

Virginia News.

Conquest and Barton, the colored men implicated in the Accomac county riots, were awarded a new trial by the Virginia Supreme Court of Appeals yesterday.

Mrs. Nation got in trouble in West Point yesterday. She went into a saloon and was arrested by a policeman. She was fined $5 by the mayor. She then abused the mayor and was fined $5 for contempt of court. She paid the fines and left for Richmond.

Capt. E. T. Morgan, superintendent of the State penitentiary at Richmond, has just made an official visit to the convict camp near Staunton, where there are 56 prisoners working on the road leading to Churchville. He inspected the work and was well pleased with the progress made.

Messrs. Davis & Davis, Washington patent attorneys, report the grant this week to citizens of this state, of the following patents: M. P. Henvis and D. S. Clark, of Norfolk, convertible railway-car; W. B. Parrish, of Kara, belt-tightener; G. W. Rowe, of Hampton, sifter-box.

The University of Virginia Summer School of Art starts its fifth session with four increasingly successful sessions to look back upon for support. The prospects for the coming session indicate a growth that will make necessary the presence of two critics in order to provide the great amount of individual attention which has been the distinguishing feature of this school. In this event, Mr. Cootes will again assume personal charge of the classes.

A forger who has defrauded persons at Leesburg, Winchester, and Westernport, Md., the past five days, is still at large. Posing as a preacher, he enters a bank and asks to open an account, tendering a draft drawn on some distant point for credit. Later he has a check cashed bearing the name of some prominent clergyman. Presiding elders are favorities with the forger, who styles himself Rev. Orrey &c., and the names of Rev. E. V. Regester, of the M. E. Church South, and Rev. M. F. B. Rice, of the M. E. Church, both presiding elders, have been successfully used.

Thomas B. McDowell, a wealthy Baltimorean, was found dead yesterday morning in a creek which runs under the railroad trestle near Elks, on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. It is generally believed that McDowell, despondent over an unfortunate love affair, took his own life. He is said to have been engaged to a young Richmond woman. It is said that her family was bitterly opposed to the match. It is presumed that his mind had become temporarily unbalanced by the breaking of the engagement. McDowell was the senior member of the large candy manufacturing firm of McDowell, Pyle & Co., of Baltimore. He was fifty years of age. The death of his wife last winter was a serious shock to him, and shortly afterward, he was attacked by partial paralysis.

NO CHANGE IN INJUNCTION LAWS.

There will be no legislation changing the injunction laws at this session of Congress. This was decided by the House republican conference, held last night. The conference, after three hours' debate, adjourned sine die by a vote of 75 to 63, and, so far as the House is concerned, the matter is a dead issue for this session. It was admitted that such a measure would not meet with approval in the Senate at this time.

While the vote taken by the House republicans amounted, in the final analysis, to a vote against any anti-injunction legislation at this session, it also showed the fact that no agreement could be reached upon any of the measures under consideration. A number of the members of the conference favored all of the bills, from the Hepburn measure to the Payne bill, but a sufficient number of them could not agree upon any one of these propositions.

During the debate the House chamber was excessively hot, and Representative Fassett, of New York, fainted from the effects of the heat. He was taken to the lobby and quickly resuscitated. He went back to the conference and stayed to the end.

In the course of the conference Speaker Cannon made a severe attack on Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, one of the most ardent supporters of the bill. The argument of the opponents of the proposed legislation was that it was dangerous to the interests of the country.

The failure of the conference to adopt an anti-injunction measure clears the way still more for an early adjournment of Congress.

THE METHODISTS.

At the Methodist General Conference in Baltimore yesterday two bishops were added to the Methodist Episcopal Church when the official announcement was made that Rev. Dr. William F. Anderson, secretary of the Board of Education, Freedman's Aid and Sunday-School, and Rev. Dr. John L. Nuelsen, of Nast Theological Seminary, Berea, Ohio, had been elected Wednesday.

Three ballots for bishops were taken yesterday without election.

Next to the balloting for bishops the most interesting development of the day was the strong effort of Rev. Dr. Charles W. Baldwin to have the Conference move the Sunday-school headquarters from New York to Baltimore, instead of to Chicago, as is proposed. The motion was laid on the table.

Dr. Baldwin also presented a resolution concerning the "white slave" traffic, which was adopted.

The financial plan of the committee on Education was adoped, separating the Sunday-School, Freeaman's Aid and Education interests.

It was decided to send to President Roosevelt an appropriately framed copy of the Discipline of 1908, in recognition of his welcome and address at the American University.

GOV. JOHNSON IN RICHMOND.

Governor Johnson, of Minnesota addressed the American Cotton Manufacturers' association in Richmond yesterday evening.

Governor Johnston dwelt at length on the wonderful development of the cotton growing and spinning industry of the United States, and predicted that soon the south would have a practical monopoly of the cotton-milling business of the world, as it now has in production.

He said the government is responsible for unnatural and dangerous conditions.

EPISCOPAL COUNCIL DIOCESE OF VIRGINIA.

Fredericksburg, Va., May 21, 1908.

SECOND DAY.

MORNING SESSION.

The council convened for business at 10 o'clock with Bishop Gibson in the chair. After prayer offered by Rev. Dr. Morris, of Monumental Church, Richmond, the minutes of the previous day were read and laid over for approval after some discussion. A committee of three consisting of Rev. Dr. Forsyth and Messrs. R. C. Welford and Robert Beverley to consider the whole question of recording the minutes of the council.

The bishop then read the rest of his annual address, in which he first gave an account of the present condition of the old colonial churchs of the diocese. He called the attention of the council to the needs of the widows' and orphans' fund as it is at ll inadequate for its purpose. The contributions to this should be much larger. The disabled clergy fund is well kept up and there are fewer beneficiaries on it just now than for some time past. Thirty-seven thousand dollars has been given to the missionary work of the diocese during the last year. The bishop then discussed the changes proposed and made in the constitution and canons of the general church for the information of the council. The meeting of the general convention was referred to in the warmest terms, and its work and results highly commended. The attention of the council was called to the fact that Canon XIX only permitted, with the license of the bishop, the invitation of members of other churches to speak in our churches on special occasions. There is no exchange of pulpits at the regular services of the church. The value of Archdeacon Tyler's work was emphasized by the bishop. On his resignation of this office to take charge of St John's Church, Hagerstown, Md., Rev. Dean Hinks, of Boise, Idaho, was asked to take the place of archdeacon. He at first accepted the office, and then felt that he could not leave his present position. The bishop put very urgently before the council the need of an archdeacon for the diocese. The bishop in answer to a resolution of the Piedmont Convention approved of the election of a coadjutor bishop as soon as it was feasible to do so. He said that if the contingent fund were paid up there would be no trouble about his support. He would appoint a committee at this council to report on the subject of a coadjutor bishop at the next

A recess was taken for divine service at 11:30 o'clock when Rev. Wm. M. Clark, of St. James' Church, Richmond, preached. At a quarter before one o'clock the council again resumed business. A cordial invitation was extended by Mr. Chamblin, the lay delegate from Leesburg, for the council to meet for the first time at St. James' Church in that town. The invitation was unanimously accepted.

Rev. Otis Meade gave a very favorable report from the Diocesan Sunday School Commission on its work during the past year. It called upon the diocese to enter upon the higher development of Sunday school work throughout its bounds. The commission asks for the appointment of one Sunday during the year, in the month of October, for preaching sermons on the subject of Sunday schools. The Sunday school commission was appointed for another year on motion of Rev. Wm. M. Clark.

Rev. P. P. Phillips presented the report from the standing committee of the diocese, which reported the number of candidates for orders already stated in the bishop's address, that consent had been given to the consecration of Coadjutor Bishop Guerry, of South Carolina and Rev. F. W. Neve and T. C. Darst, and Messrs. Peter Mays, Joseph Bryson and Joseph Wilmer together with Bishop Gibson by his request were approved as delegates to the Pan-Anglican Council to be held in London, England, in June next. Mr. Joseph Bryan next read the report of the committee on finance which showed that the expenditures for last year exceeded the receipts on the contingent fund by $900. Of course this is due to the purchase of the bishop's house which, the committee felt, was a most fortunate thing for the diocese as it gives it such a home as its bishop should have for himself and for worthily dispensing hospitality in accordance with the ideals of Virginia. The committee also recommends the payment of $200 to Rev. E. L. Goodwin for his services as historiographer during the past two years. This was unanimously approved.

On motion of Dr. Blackford of the Episcopal High School it was resolved that the council view with much satisfaction the coming visit of the bishop to England to attend the meeting of the Pan-Anglican Council on Missions in June and the meeting of the Lambeth Conference of bishops in July, both to be held in London. It is remarked that this is the first time that a bishop of Virginia has determined to attend the Lambeth Conference and the diocese is to be congratulated on this. It was further moved that $500 be given to the bishop to defray the expenses of attendance. The resolution was unanimously carried, with the reference of the amount of the $500 proposed to be given to Bishop Gibson in the first place to the finance committee for its decision according to cause.

The council then took a recess until 2:30 p. m.

EVENING SESSION

The council reconvened for business at ten minutes of four o'clock and proceeded to the election of its regular standing committees which are composed of the same members as last year with the exception of the committee on colonial churches where the Rev. E. L. Goodwin takes the place of Rev. J. P. Tyler, who has left the diocese.

The council then proceeded to the order of the day which is an amendment offered by Rev. L. R. Mason to Canon VIII. on the method of raising the contingent fund, the design of the amendment being to apportion the fund to the churches according to their regular annual contributions instead of the present plan of assessing the parish or church one dollar per communicant. In the proposed change the whole amount of the apportionment is not to exceed the full amount charged to the parishes or churches on the present plan.

After much discussion the vote was taken on the report of the committee in favor of the present canon and it was lost. The minority report was then read in favor of changing the canon and a vote was taken by orders, with the following result—clergy, ayes 36, noes 21; laity, ayes 18, noes 26. There was a failure to concur and the amendment to change the present method of raising the contingent fund was lost. The finance committee recommended that the $500 granted by the council on Dr. Blackford's motion toward the bishop's expenses in going to the Pan-Anglican congress be paid, also $100 was voted towards the expenses of the Sunday school commission. The council then adjourned until 8:15 o'clock tonight.

On Wednesday night at a quarter after eight o'clock a service was held in the interest of diocesan missions with Bishop Gibson presiding. The secretary, Rev. Robert A. Goodwin, read the annual report of the executive committee which was most encouraging, showing that there were 49 missionaries in the diocese and that a little over $10,000 had been contributed towards the diocesan missionary fund during the past year. The diocese was congratulated on passing the $10,000 mark. Excellent addresses on the missionary work in various parts of the diocese were made by the Revs. D. H. Lewis, L. C. Harrison, W. N. Tillinghast and W. R. Mason.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Charge Against Miss Wood.

New York, May 22.—The grand jury today starts an investigation of the perjury charge against Miss Mae C. Wood, whose suits for "divorce" from Senator Thomas C. Platt had a dramatic ending yesterday in her commitment to the Tombs on an order of Justice O'Gorman, before whom her suit was tried.

Miss Wood says she will fight her case against Senator Platt harder than ever if she is given the opportunity. "We tried out of respect for his age to leave out some of the strongest points of our case," she said, "but the next time everything will come out. He threatened my life four years ago if I breathed a word of his marriage to me. He said he had many employes who would do anything for him and that he would have them hunt me down. He is a big politician and has all the money. I haven't any. It means everything if I win." "Will you plead guilty to the charge of perjury?" she was asked. "I'll rot first," she answered in a shriek, her lips thin and bloodless. "I'll rot first."

The Lusitania's Record.

New York, May 22.—The Cunard steamer Lusitania, which arrived at Sandy Hook this morning, covered the 2,889 knots of the voyage at an average rate of 24.83 knots hourly, making the run from Daunt's Rock to Sandy Hook in four days, twenty hours and nineteen minutes. At present she is anchored off Sandy Hook in a fog too dense to make navigation of the Ambrose channel safe. Not until the mist lifts will she enter the bay. The big liner's four day's runs were respectively 662, 625, 632 and 628 knots, leaving a balance of 363 to be covered in the remaining twenty hours and nineteen minutes. The fastest voyage made by the Lusitania's sister ship, the Mauretania, was four days, twenty-three hours and fifty-nine minutes.

Tribesmen Still Fighting.

Calcutta, May 22.—Undiscouraged by their loss of more than 200 warriors in Wednesday's fighting with the British troops at Umri Killi, the rebel Mohmand tribesmen along the northern Indian frontier are desperately resisting every foot of the English advance into their country. Fierce fighting is reported again today. Between cholera among his own men and a spread of rebellion, General Sir James Willcocks, commanding the British troops, is facing an exceedingly difficult situation.

Cholera is depleting his ranks severely and additional reinforcements will undoubtedly be needed to complete the suppression of the uprising.

Four Cars Collided.

New York, May 22.—Between twenty and twenty-five persons suffered more or less serious injuries in a crash of four cars on the loop at the Manhattan end of the Brooklyn bridge early today. A broken brake chain of a west bound Myrtle avenue car was responsible for the accident. Plunging down the slope at terrific speed the car collided at the loop with a Flatbush avenue car, tearing the platform from the runaway and crushing in the rear of the Flatbush avenue car like an egg shell. The impact tumbled the Flatbush car into a local and the local collided with a Bergen street car.

Conditions in Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., May 22.—With additional obstacles placed in the way of arbitration of Cleveland's street railroad strike, rioting and the use of dynamite as strike weapons have been renewed.

Four cars were dynamited early today and last night and four passengers injured.

Reports have reached Dupont that a car of lubricating oil for the company had been tampered with and flour of emery put in many of the barrels. Every barrel was ordered carefully tested.

Steamer Burned at Sea.

Baltimore, May 22.—The officers and crew of the steamer George Weems, of the Baltimore and Carolina Steamship Company, bound from Georgetown, S. C., for Baltimore, which was discovered burning and abandoned off Frying Pan Shoals, Wednesday, and for whose safety great anxiety has been felt, were packed up at sea and are now bound for this port, on board the steamer Chatham, of the Merchants and Miners' Transportation Company, according to word received here today.

Wind Drove Knife into Her Heart.

New York, May 22.—Mrs. Mary Hardigan, aged 36, of Brooklyn, was found dead with a knife plunged into her heart on the threshold between the dining room and kitchen today. So far as the police have been able to learn, the woman was about to enter the dining room with a loaf of bread and a knife in her hand when a gust of wind from an open window slammed the door, hitting the handle of the knife and drove the blade into her heart.

Killed by Explosion.

Paris, May 22.—Four workmen were killed and forty-two injured in a mysterious explosion in a sugar refinery here today. A search of the debris may reveal more victims than have yet been accounted for. Combustion of sugar dust caused the blast, which enveloped the building, burning the workmen on the upper floors and burying those below under a mountain of blazing wreckage.

Sixtieth Congress.

Washington, May 22.

SENATE.

A resolution adopted by the Cotton Manufacturers' Association, at its recent session in Richmond, Va., was read in the Senate today. It urges legislation at this session for the protection and preservation of the White and Appalachian forests as aids to navigation.

The Senate today adopted a resolution referring 150 claim bills to the Court of Claims for action under the Tucker law.

A bill removing obstructions from the ship channel at Key West, Fla., was passed.

The rejected conference report on the postoffice appropriation bill, refused by the House because of the ship subsidy amendment, was again sent to the conference by the Senate this afternoon. It is expected the Senate will yield on the point involved.

The omnibus claims bill was taken up.

Senator Aldrich, in referring to the omnibus claims bill, exhorted the Senate to practice economy. He said the time has come to call a halt on the stream of old claims continually pouring in. He declared the government is helpless against the testimony produced.

Consideration of the Elkins resolution, suspending the commodity clause of the Hepburn act until January 1, 1910, was resumed in the Senate today.

HOUSE.

The conference report on the postoffice appropriation bill, including a provision for ship subsidy was rejected by the House today, by a vote of 147 to 155. The vote was so close that Speaker Cannon, amid yells of joy from the democrats, ordered a recapitulation.

After a squabble as to whether the republicans or democrats had the right to make a motion to send the bill back to conference, Speaker Cannon recognized Mr. Overstreet for that purpose. Mr. Moon (democrat, Tennessee), announced the democrats were in favor of that action and the motion was agreed to without a roll call.

Ship subsidy advocates declare that it was the weighing proposition that defeated the report and gave evidence of continuing the fight.

The democrats to vote for the approval of the conference report were Mr. Hobson, of Alabama, and Mr. Bartlett, of Nevada.

The house took up the Crumpacker campaign contribution publicity bill. This bill is the McCall bill, Crumpacker explained, "with a few amendments." One of the reduction of representation in the South on accounts of the disfranchisement of the negroes.

The democrats rose up against in wrath against the republicans because of the amendment. They claimed they wanted to support a publicity bill but could not because of the "infamous" amendments.

Minority Leader Williams denounced the bill as an attempt to catch "niggers" on one hand and white men on another.

Never again, he said, would the south submit to negro domination. He shook his finger at the republicans and said they were playing with fire in a powder magazine.

Mr. Dalzell said every fair minded man who believed in publicity of campaign contributions to elections at which representatives to Congress are elected, punishment of registration funds, and true representation in Congress, would vote for the Crumpacker bill.

The bill passed, 160 to 125, a party vote.

Edward Leon Thompson, known as "Dr. Leon," was convicted in Washington yesterday, by a jury in Criminal Court No 2, of performing an illegal operation on Lillie Bryan, colored. He was indicted under section 809 of the code. The offense carries a maximum punishment of five years in penitentiary. He will be sentenced next week, and will be free, meanwhile, on $2,000 bond.

STILLMAN SAFETY
Lamps.

The most perfect lamp made. It cannot and will not explode, and if dropped, merely goes out. The oil in it cannot splash (a great danger in other lamps) and the oil always remains cold (not to causes explosions in other lamps), being fed from the bottom of the font, the most remote place from point of ignition. Besides giving a bright light, the oil lasts much longer, as the device causes perfect combustion of the hydrocarbons. Can be blown out with absolute safety, or turned out as easily as gas, and on account of the absolute safety of this lamp the mere price cannot measure the real value.

A bill was passed establishing in the Interior Department a Bureau of Mines.

There is no agreement at present between the House and Senate regarding the policy of the United States in forests on the White Mountain and southern Appalachian Mountain ranges. The Senate passed the Brandegee bill, which contemplates an ultimate expenditure of $30,000,000 in the purchase of land for national reserves, yesterday by a vote of 222 to 40. The House passed the Scott bill, which, in the language of its author, "puts it up to the States to do their duty in preserving the forests."

Following the filing of his official report and verdict which declares the charred bones found in the fire ruins to be that of Mrs. Belle Gunness, Coroner Mack at Laporte, Ind., yesterday completed his report and verdict, finding that the three bodies found in the debris were those of her children. The coroner finds that the death of Mrs. Gunness and her children was due to "Felonious homicide, the perpetrator of which is not known."

THE BOARD OF INQUIRY.

The board of inquiry, composed of C. W. Wright and Edwin F. White, of the Baltimore district steamboat inspection service which commenced an investigation yesterday to fix the responsibility for the sinking of the river steamer Trenton, continued its session until 10:30 o'clock last night when the board adjourned to meet again at 10 o'clock this morning. As was stated yesterday, the technical charge of negligence and inattention to duty is lodged against each of the licensed officers of the boat, Capt. William L. Davis, and Mate James Beach, of Alexandria, and Chief Engineer T. H. Hewitt, of New London, Conn. The cases were taken up separately in the order mentioned. Attorneys Luther B. Dow, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and C. W. Warwick, of Baltimore, appeared for the captain and mate.

The evidence in the case of Capt. Davis and Mate Beach was closed last night, and the case against Engineer Hewitt was set for this morning. It was about 11:30 when the board was again called to order.

Mr. L. B. Dow, counsel for the engineer and mate, was given three minutes in which to deliver his argument, after which Engineer Hewitt was conducted into the room. The delay in this morning's proceedings was caused by waiting for John E. Taylor, president of the company, to appear. He was to represent the engineer. Engineer Hewitt signified his willingness to allow the case against him to be closed without counsel; so the inquiry was brought to a close.

The findings in the case will be presented to Mr. George Uhler in Baltimore.

Mr. Luther B. Dow, of New York, counsel for the American Association of Masters, Mates and Pilots, who appeared for Captain Davis and Mate Beach, was assisted by Mr. C. L. Warwick, national secretary of the association of Baltimore. These gentlemen were sent here by these associations to defend the accused, who were not subjected to any expense whatever for counsel fees.

MORE TRESPASSERS.

Many other stocks make material gains, but before the first half hour ended profit-taking ensued a reaction and a good part of the early advance was lost. CATHOLIC CHURCH AND PHILIPPINES.

Secretary Taft, in an address at Nashville, Tenn., last night before the Bar Association of Tennessee, discussed the taking over of the Philippines by the American government. He said:

"One of the most serious objections that many of us felt to taking over the Philippines was the differences which were sure to arise in the transfer of sovereignty from a monarchy like Spain, in which the church and the State seem to be in their interests and jurisdiction inextricably united, to a sovereignty like that of the United States, in which, both by constitution and by tradition and custom, the State is entirely separate from the church." In conclusion he said: "The Roman Catholic Church must always be the most important influence for the uplifting of the Filipino people, and its prosperity will always make for the good of the Filipinos. Since the American occupation other denominations have gone into the islands, and have been doing good there, both directly and because the spirit of christian emulation which their presence creates does good to the older church. As a non-Catholic, I sincerely believe and I think that there are no Protestants that know the conditions in the islands who did not admit that it will be of much advantage to the islands as a whole to have the Roman Catholic Church restored to a condition of property. This change for the better must be slow, because of the change from payment of priests by the government to payment by contributions of the congregations."

Congratulated Francis Joseph.

Vienna, May 22.—Eighty-five thousand school children thronged the Schrodbrunn Palace grounds today to congratulate Emperor Francis Joseph on the recent completion of his sixtieth year on the Austrian throne. The little ones, dressed in the costume of 1840 the year of his ascension, presented a programme of music, tableaux and dancing. "The older I grow the more I love children," the emperor said, moved to tears by the music and his little visitors display of affection.
